GERTRUDE ADAMS WILL PRACTICE OSTEOPATHY

A clipping from a Schenectady paper will be interesting to Norway people, as follows: "Miss Gertrude H. Adams of 1759 Union Street, Schenectady, was awarded the Magoun medal for scolastic excellence in the commencement honors just announced by the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy. This award is one of the most coveted of the senior honors and is given only for consistently high average throughout the four year course. Dr. Adams was given her degree with one of the best scholastic rankings ever given a girl graduate of the college."

Dr. Adams is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Adams, who resided in Norway before settling in New York state some twenty-seven years ago. Her mother, before her marriage, was Miss Mamie Moffatt of Groveton, N. H., who was employed for some time in the stitching room of the B. F. Spinney & Co. Her father is the son of the late Charles H. Adams, contractor, and worked as carpenter on several jobs while Norway was recovering from the fire in 1894.

Community Nurse Coming

Mrs. Theresa Anderson, Nurse Supervisor, from the Maine Public Health Association, was in town Wednesday, to present Miss Belle Carter Davis to the Norway Nursing Service, and it has been decided that Miss Davis will come to Norway as the Community Nurse, to commence her duties July 11th. Miss Davis comes highly recommended in the work, as she has had experience in both community work, school work, and general nursing. She graduated from high school at Phoenixville, Pa., in 1907 and for nine years was a teacher in the public schools in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Entering the Presbyterian Hospital in Philadelphia to train for a nurse, she graduated in 1921, and followed with a post graduate course for social and health work in public health nursing. The following year she was in Collingswood, N. J., as Community Nurse, and left there to accept a position as Branch Supervisor in Philadelphia (Germantown Branch) the Visiting Nurse Society.

At the present time, Miss Davis is at Belfast, doing advanced work in a Diagnostic Chest Clinic, for Waldo County, under the auspices of the Maine Public Health Association. On coming to Norway, Miss Davis plans to organize general nursing service. She plans also to develop school nursing service and provide opportunity for mothers to come to her for weighing and advice, this to take the place of the baby clinics that have been held previously. As has been previously published, her work will be under the direction of the local doctors, as far as any treatments are concerned. Miss Davis will have her office at the Annie Sampson house, front room, street floor, and her living quarters and garage will be at the N. E. Carroll home, Beal Street.

Norway Lake Pavilion Opens, Saturday, June 25

The Blue Bird Serenaders of Norway, have taken over the Norway Lake Pavilion and will open it for the season for dancing on Saturday evening, June 25, at 8:15.

This local orchestra has provided music here and in many nearby towns the past winter and spring and has proved a drawing card. The outcome of attendance at the Saturday night dance will determine whether or not to run a dance on Tuesday night, also.

Refreshments will be on sale at all times during the evening. Ample parking space has been provided for autos.

TWIN-TOWN NATURE CLUB OUTING

The Twin-Town Nature Club were delightfully entertained, Saturday, at Happy Valley Farm, East Sumner, by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Robinson and Mrs. Ella Heald. The Norway delegation left at 9 a. m. and were joined by the South Paris members, and the trip was made via Buckfield. The Robinson Home, set away from the highway, is surrounded with shrubbery adn flowers and is a haven for the birds, and feeding stations, bird baths, etc., are provided for their comfort. The birds are so tame they seemed not to mind the visitors, and they saw the blackbirds feeding their young, which is unusual. The forenoon was passed socially and admiring the place.

At noon time, all went up Twin Road Trail to Hill Crest for basket lunch. On the way, some rare specimens of plants and flowers were found. During the lunch hour the hostesses served pies (such pies) and hot coffee made on the grounds. President Park met with his usual accident, which seems to be his habit. After lunch all returned to the house for a short business session and program. Readings were given on birds and flowers, and Mrs. Edith Decoster, "the butterfly woman," brought a Luna moth which she had hatched and raised and also she had some eggs which she gave to members who wanted to try their luck.

Mrs. Ella Heald had the largest bird list, 113, and Mrs. Alice Wiggin the largest flower list, 143. Others had over a hundred on their lists. Pictures were taken. On the farm is the old Robinson homestead, over one hundred years old, and all were invited to visit the historic place. It has been preserved with all its old furnishings. A pumpkin pine floor was remarked upon. On the kitchen shelf was the old clock, still ticking away in good time, that was there when Mr. Robinson was a lad. In the kitchen was the old rod, held up by hand wrought iron hooks, where the pumpkin and apple were dried. Another relic was a framed diploma won by Leonard Robinson for the best variety of fruit from Sumner and Hartford Fair, October 12-13, 1859. A library is filled with wonderful and rare old books. Mr. Robinson has 150 scrap books which he has made when alone on the farm, and these contain clippings from magazines and papers, items of National and local interest. In every room was something of special interest and the hour spent there was filled with "thrills." Mrs. Decoster was made an honorary member of the club.

The host and hostesses spared no pains to make the day a happy one as well as profitable, and all voted it one of the Red Letter days of the club. The trip home was by way of West Sumner by Martin Pond, and again the country never appeared more beautiful. Those who went were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Park, Stephen Russell, Mrs. Alice Wiggin, Mrs. Sophia Foster, Mrs. Geneva Wight, Miss Gertrude Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Cummings, Mrs. Elizabeth Morton, Mrs. Lucy Dow, Francis Dow, Mrs. Etta Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frost, Albert Carroll, Mrs. Sara Howe. Mrs. Stella Pinkham, Mrs. Esther Cordwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Cordwell, Mrs. Flora Webster, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Houghton. Miss Julia Morton, Mrs. Elizabeth Downing, Mrs. Katherine Morrill, Miss Margaret Morrill, Mrs. Betha Noyes, Philip F. Stone, Mrs. Maude Decoster, Clifford Frost and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson.

The playground at the high school grounds is open for the children, with Miss Josephine Chase in charge. Three new swings have been added and with the other equipment furnishes plenty of entertainment for the children, and Miss Chase is exercising all possible precaution against accidents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Whitehouse of Fredericksburg, Va., and their son, Alton, of Albany, N. Y., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whitehouse, two days. On Sunday, the visitors and Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse and a sister, Mrs. Alice Marston, motored to Rumford to call on another sister, Mrs. Eunice Putnam. The party started, Monday, for Albany, N. Y., where the son is general manager of the Packard Auto Co., there.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Easton have gone to Belgrade Lakes to attend Dental Convention.

Catherine Melanson and Gertrude McKay were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett for a day's outing at the lake.

Miss Katherine Jones of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Jones, Pleasant Street.

Heard and Seen at Advertiser Office

Kenneth Goodwin of the Blue Bird Serenaders Orchestra had us hustle out some full sheet posters in red ink, Tuesday. It was to announce to the public that the orchestra was to run dances at the Norway Lake Pavilion. The Opening night is Saturday, June 25. The boys did well at the Legion Hall last winter and are hoping for a crowd at the Pavilion.

H. A. Andrews of Oxford was here, Tuesday, and is having us print his letter paper and envelopes. Mr. Andrews is proprietor of a dairy and poultry farm in Oxford.

Jesse P. Edwards is a member of the large fraternity known as "The Forgetters." He walked one mile Saturday afternoon to pay us a small account but when he appeared at the desk, the bill and check had been left at home, so we could do no business. We are learning every day that we are not alone in the embarrassing game of forgetting.

Frank M. Goss of Boston, made us a pleasant call on Saturday. He had been a guest at Shepard's Camps and fishing in the Allegash with a party from Norway and Auburn. Mr. Goss loves the odor of printers' ink for he was a book publisher many years and "once a printer, always a printer" clings to him.

Howard D. Smith brought for our inspection a Norway Advertiser, published by E. Plummer in Norway Village, which was the property of Sebastian S. Smith, his father. The copy was No. I, Vol. III, dated April 17, 1846, eighty-one years ago. Apparently the four page sheet ignored local news for short stories, poultry, a few hazy jokes and patent medicine advertisements. Scanning the ads, M. B. Bartlett was attorney-at-law in Bethel; L. T. Boothby and J. B. Richardson in business at Norway had dissolved partnership; Peter Frost made genteel clothing; Elliott Smith, executor, offered for sale the homestead of the late Joshua Smith, Esq., and valuable water power. Simeon Walton was watchmaker, and fitted spectacles. G. J. Ordway warned delinquent tax payers to ante. Some were behind four years. Asa Thayer Jr., the postmaster, advertised several unclaimed letters. Book and Job printing was nicely executed at the Advertiser office; Eben Hobbs and Richard Evans manufactured cast iron plows of latest styles.

This office is a home for lost number plates. Saturday, Charles Whittemore contributed his bit to our collection, number is Maine X-17-386. If you can place it, call at this office. One other unclaimed, reads "552-B-Dealer". Next.

The Business Manager of the Advertiser made a sad mistake recently, when he happened to remark to someone who came into the office that it was a warm day, as the aforesaid party had but recently come from Florida, and was evidently of the opinion that the day was not warm, though it did seem so to Maine people not accustomed to Florida sunshine.

Myron Roberts of Boston, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Day. Mr. Roberts is the son of Myron Roberts, who used to work in the office some twenty-five years ago, and married Miss Fannie Whitman while here. They are now living at Wolfboro, N. H. Myron has joined the Advertiser force for the summer.

Joseph F Becker, director of Great Oaks Camp in Otisfield by Saturday and Moose Lake was in town Friday. Mr. Becker purchased the camps last fall and Ernest Greenleaf and crew are putting up the cabins. Mr Becker comes from Union City, N. J. and previously has been running a boys' camp in the Adirondacks, this being the first season in Maine. The camp contains 150 acres, borders two lakes, with sleeping cabins and gymnasium, and is advertised as "a camp for boys 7 to 17 in the Maine Woods 40 miles norththwest of Portland." It is a fine location and Mr. Becker says the season is opening up well. The letter paper and envelopes for both directors and camps is being printed at this office.

Charles Heino of Harrison has renewed his subscription. We have a large number of the Finnish people in the vicinity of Harrison and West Paris who take the Advertiser.

Harry Greenleaf has decided to have his name put on the mailing list. He has been purchasing the paper along the way on a Thursday night but he says he sometimes forgot, so thought he'd have it come regularly by mail. He has been working at the Savings' Bank Building doing some carpentering.

Lesson for June 26

Review—Life and Letters of Peter (Read I Peter 5:1-11).

GOLDEN TEXT—Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Lessons from Peter's Life.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Peter in the School of Christ.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Peter as a Leader.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Peter's Life and Work.

At best, suggestions as to the method of review have only a relative value. The individuality of the teacher, the aptitude of the pupils and the department of the school are factors which determine the best method to use. Three methods are suggested, the first two of which are in part taken from "Peloubet's Notes."

I. Peter's Characteristics.

Among the outstanding characteristics of Peter may be mentioned impetuosity, leadership, courage, cowardice, changeableness, outspokenness. These traits and others are to be found in the quarter's lessons.

II. Biographical.

The features to be stressed in this plan are Peter's early life, discipleship, and fall, restoration, preaching at Pentecost, imprisonment, writings.

III. The Summary Method.

Lesson for April 3.

Jesus had first called Peter and John to become His disciples. Afterwards he called them to become fishers of men. He first calls sinners to come to Him for salvation and then calls those who are saved to serve Him in winning others to Christ.

Lesson for April 10.

Following the feeding of the five thousand, some were disposed to compel Christ to be king. Seemingly to prevent the disciples from entanglement in this movement He sent them across the sea. From His place of prayer in the mount He saw them struggling against the storm on Lake Galilee and went to their rescue, speaking words of comfort. At his invitation Peter walked on the water, but when he took his eyes off of the Savior he began to sink.

Lesson for April 17.

To give the disciples a clear conception of His person, to prepare them for the dark hour of the cross, Jesus put to them two questions, "Who do men say I am?" (R. V.) "Who say ye that I am?" (R. V.) One's conception of Christ's person determines his character and his service.

Lesson for April 24.

To revive the crushed hopes of the disciples and to show them how the kingdom was to be realized, Christ was transfigured before them.

Lesson for May 1.

Peter's downfall began when he refused to hear about the cross. The steps in his downfall were self-confidence, sleeping at the post of duty, lack of prayer, zeal without knowledge, following Christ afar off, warming himself at the enemy's fire, and open denial. The look of Jesus brought him to repentance.

Lesson for May 8.

Upon word by Mary that the Lord's tomb was empty, Peter and John hurriedly made an investigation. After Jesus had shown Himself to be alive by many infallible proofs He recommissioned Peter. Resurrection must be beyond a peradventure before there can be missionary effort.

Lesson for May 15.

Fifty days after Christ ascended the Holy Spirit was poured out. When the promise of the Father was sent the disciples were empowered for witnessing of Christ.

Lesson for May 22.

In the power of the Holy Spirit Peter wrought miracles and witnessed for Christ with such power that great numbers were added unto the church.

Lesson for May 29.

After Pentecost Peter, who had cowered before a Jewish maid and shamefully denied his Lord, witnessed for Christ in spite of persecution.

Lesson for June 5.

In keeping with Christ's command to witness to the ends of the earth, the missionary program had so widened as to include the Gentiles. Cornelius, a prominent Gentile of good reputation among the Jews, was used of God to break down the middle wall of partition.

Lesson for June 12.

Peter was imprisoned for preaching the gospel. A great crisis was upon the church. The church prayed and God sent an angel to deliver Peter.

Lesson for June 19.

Though Christians are sojourners in the earth they have responsibilities as citizens. They should be obedient to the laws of the country.

Dwell Deep

It is God's will that I should be serene and strong and brave. He does not mean for me to be despairing or depressed. Day by day He will give me a measure of strength adequate for each emergency. "Dwell deep, my soul, dwell deep!"—Christian Observer.

True faith detaches from the world and sin in proportion as it attaches to Christ.—F. B. Meyer.

Fishing Story

From Sugar Island, Moosehead Lake, Maine

Yesterday was a record breaker for me. Got 9 fish—3 salmon and 6 square tails—total weight 20 lbs. Had 14 3-4 lbs. and along came a salmon of 5 1-4 lb. dimensions. I gave up the location to Mr. Moier, of Chase & Sanborn Co. of Boston. Also gave him the fly I was using and he did big work among the black spots.

At this writing have taken 45 fish. Put my mark on a good number.

The fish are running smaller than last year. Have caught several of less than a pound.

Caribou responds nobly when weather permits fishing there. Have been there 4 times and have been driven off by high winds and heavy waves. It is four miles from camp and the rollers are threatening at times. Walter navigates the sponsored canoe in nice shape but occasionally we both come in wet. The craft is sloppy and the waves break into it but "she no sink."

Mrs. T. claims to have lead a deer most into camp when his horn broke off and she came in with only the horn. She made the cook's boy, thirteen years old, believe the story, but not Elgin.

Three new log camps nave been built in the past season, named: "Log-a-Nook", "Stamford" and "Sanborn Lodge". I presume that means me. Am pleased over the remembrance. It is a 2-bed affair and well located.

Chas. Howe of the Graybar Co. is here and navigating his "Hope & Hope" or "Heave & Haul" stubbed-tailed canoe. The identical craft he bailed out with a sugar scoop last year when it tipped him out and turned bottom-up. Charles got wet and come in and changed his clothes. He got a raft of fish last year 60 odd—more than 125 pounds. I hope he won't do as much this year. It gives me no chance to show off and I feel belittled at his success.

Elgin has fished 44 hours with his "two dry flies and a bumble bee" and hasn't as yet landed one. He is hopeful.

The Cole girl, who recently went to Norway to get published and show her "catch" to her parents, was showered with rice on taking the boat. I don't know just what that means but its something relating to matrimony, I presume. Her name is Daurice Cole and she has come back and is now heaving and hauling dishes with and without food, in the dining room. She is a good waitress and well liked. The cookee leaves tomorrow and I presume she will "fill" both places. She is capable of it.

A couple gulls about the size of your fist are in a box in the wash room and Fuller Bartlett is feeding them small fish. They fuss and pick his fingers and run away occasionally, to be found in a nearby bog. They give the boy a good deal of trouble.

John Owens of Rockland, Mass., has quit making "Arch Supporting Shoes" for fishing. He is "cracky" about fly fishing and holds the record of casting for 8 days and not getting a fish. He is as proud of that as he is the shoes made by his firm. "Eight days and not a fish!"

He's getting 'um this year but he 'sut' on small surface flies and will use no other. It's his way of the fish stay in the water".

Walter Smith has sent out a box of fish he netted. Elgin Greenleaf has sent out two boxes he begged. Mrs. Twitchell has sent out a box she stole. A box of fish weighs ten pounds and the State of Maine gets $1.00 for each box, the Express Company, 62 cents, and Bill Meservey, 40 cents for the wooden case, hence two per box is the cost for such a luxury.

The "Sloppy Ann" is ready to start and I must stop writing and go up in the Thoroughfare and cast "Ike's Last Resort" for whales or smaller fish. The writing paper has given out.—Sanborn.

Stanley F. Bartlett, whose father, King Bartlett, at one time was station agent at Norway, called and shook hends with the home people, Tuesday. He was on his way to Ripogenus Dam. He has stouted up since going to work for the Great Northern Company. He likes the outdoor life and said Mrs. T. was the first one from Norway he had seen since leaving Zeb Merchant's store. We were deep sea fishing when he called at the island.

Fishing Story

From Sugar Island, Moosehead Lake, Maine

Yesterday was a record breaker for me. Got 9 fish—3 salmon and 6 square tails—total weight 20 lbs. Had 14 3-4 lbs. and along came a salmon of 5 1-4 lb. dimensions. I gave up the location to Mr. Moler, of Chase & Sanborn Co. of Boston. Also gave him the fly I was using and he did big work among the black spots.

As this writing have taken 45 fish. Put my mark on a good number.

The fish are running smaller than last year. Have caught several of less than a pound.

Sanborn responds nobly when weather permits fishing there. Have been there 4 times and have been driven off by high winds and heavy waves. It is four miles from camp and the rollers are threatening at times. Walter navigates the sponsored canoe in nice shape but occasionally we both come in wet. The craft is sloppy and the waves break into it but "she no sink."

Mrs. T. claims to have lead a deer most into camp when his horn broke off and she came in with only the horn. She made the cook's boy, thirteen years old, believe the story, but not Elgin.

Three new log camps have been built in the past season, named: "Log-a-Nook", "Schmidt" and "Sanborn Lodge". I presume that means me. Am pleased over the compliment. It is a 2-bed affair and well located.

Chas. Howe of the Graybar Co. is here and navigating his "Hope & Hope" or "Heave & Haul" stubbed-tailed canoe. The original craft he bailed out with a sap spoon last year when it tipped him and soon turned bottom-up. Charles got out and came in and changed his clothes. We got a raft of fish last year 60 odd—this year 125 pounds. I hope he won't make that much this year. It gives me no chance to show off and I feel belittled at his success.

Elgin has fished 44 hours with his "wooly flies and a bumble bee" and hasn't as yet landed one. He is hopeful.

The Ogle girl, who recently went to Norway to get published and show her parents, was showered with rice on taking the boat. I don't know just what that means but its something pointing to matrimony, I presume. Her name is Daurice Cole and she has come back and is now heaving and hauling dishes with and without food, in the dining room. She is a good waitress and well liked. The cookee leaves tomorrow and I presume she will "fill" both places. She is capable of it.

A couple gulls about the size of your fist are in a box in the wash room and Elder Bartlett is feeding them small fish. They fuss and pick his fingers and run away occasionally, to be found in a nearby hole. They give the boy a good deal of trouble.

Tom Owens of Rockland, Mass., has been making "Arch Supporting Shoes" for fishing. He is "cracky" about fly fishing and holds the record of casting for 8 days and not getting a fish. He is as proud of that as he is the shoes made by his firm. "Eight days and not a fish!"

SUMNER

The Brown & Hammond saw mill started up Wednesday, June the 15th, on the Sturtevant place. They have a tractor for power, and old growth hard wood seems to make pretty hard work for her. Many of the neighbors have been up to watch the new enterprise operate.

Sunday, the 19th, was visitors' day at Bartlett's, where at three P. M. there had been twenty-three at the house including many fellow workmen from the Oxford mill along with their wives and children, and at about 6 P. M., when we expected the show was all over, there were three cars drove in all in a bunch, and costly ones they were too, first was a Hupmobile, second a five passenger closed Buick, and the third a seven passenger closed Buick, the latest thing in the make and owned and driven by Walter Howard, the master mechanic at the Oxford mill. In this party were Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Howard and son, Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chatman and son, Floyd Mr. Chatman, a painter in the Oxford mill for about twenty years; Mr. and Mrs. Rogerson and daughter, Miss Rogerson and friend, both of whom are trained nurses. Mr. Rogerson is superintendent in the Oxford mill. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. Clifford is Mr. Rogerson's daughter also, she is a school teacher.

Thursday evening, the 16th, Mr. and Mrs. Ovide Cantin and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thibodeau called on Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Bartlett. Ed is head machinist in the Oxford mill.

They came in from Dickvale, Thursday, June 9, with the Brown & Hammond saw mill and are setting it up on the Sturtevant place to saw the hard wood lumber that Lell Poland hauled there last winter; about seventy-five thousand feet of it.

Jesse Bryant who moved from Canton with his family into the Penley birch camp to board the crew for Mr. Bosse, claims that there was not a large enough crew to board, so packed up and moved back home, Thursday.

Allie Pingree finished the birch, Thursday, the 10th and moved from their little camp, Friday, up to Mrs. Pingree's mother's house, Mrs. Linn Cole's. Allie is going to work for Alfred Morrill, peeling pulp, and will not go to Bethel, as they expected.

P. V. Redding went to Rumford, Saturday, the 11th, for the first time with his truck this spring.

Mrs. Charles Tuttle went to South Paris, Friday, to visit friends and relatives for a week; all wish her a pleasant trip on her much needed outing as Mrs. Tuttle has not been away from home to hardly stay over night for more than twenty years. Charles will be all right for he is a good cook.

There are a few changes in the birch mill crew; Merlin Morrell is working on the stripper with Vernon Redding, Harlon Bumpus got through Tuesday the 14th and went to his home in Albany; the Ellingwood brothers of Paris finished work, Saturday, the 11th. These vacancies will be filled right away by the following men, Horace Crockett, Raymond Bonney, and Norman Ford. They expect 'twill take four more weeks to finish sawing.

The foreman of the birch mill recently purchased a brand new Essex car, closed model.

Roy Martin, whose home is in Greenwood, but has worked at the birch mill from the start, hauling in birch with a pair of horses worked all one day with Mr. Swan, the mill engineer, as an assistant, picking up second quality birch and piling it separately. Mr. Martin called upon Emerson Bartlett that evening. Mr. Martin's sister writes for the Advertiser.

Callers at Emerson Bartlett's, recently, were Mr. and Mrs. Surett and children, and Mrs. Arthur Beaudett and children from Rumford. Mr. Beaudett, who was Doris Bartlett's music teacher, and is called by many the best in Rumford, is away to Paris, France, to study music. Mr. Beaudett also plays the pipe organ in the French church, a new church that cost around two hundred thousand dollars to build. He is taking a three months' course. Mr. and Mrs. Kimball of the Tibbet's boarding house also spent the evening at Mrs. Bartlett's.

Mrs. Emerson Bartlett went to Rumford with Charlie Russell, Monday morning.

Friday, June 17, was Circus day for Sumner, where Mrs. Hanson's pupils played to a big house that was filled to its capacity, at the Morrill school for closing exercises for another successful term taught by Mrs. Hanson, the teacher, who has won cooperation with the parents through her everlasting efforts tendered their scholars attending her several terms of school taught here. This Circus differed somewhat from the traveling show, as admission to the big show was free, also soft drinks, ice cream and cake. Mrs. Millett furnished the ice cream and Mr. Millett dished it out, the parents brought the cake, and to say those booths were well patronized would be putting it very mild indeed. Mrs. Hanson went to a lot of work to put this show on, and the children went through with it in great shape, and was enjoyed by all who attended, whose names are listed below: Mrs. Linn Dyer, Mrs. Benson, Miss Gladys Benson and son Rowland, Mrs. Linn Farrarr, Mrs. Percy Redding, Mrs. Florence Abbott and daughter, Ethel, Mrs. Robert Millett, Miss Helen Bonney, Mrs. Harry Holmes and three daughters, Louise, Dorothy and Mildred, Mrs. Willie Andrews, Mrs. Alfred Morrill and daughter, Marguerite, Mrs. Herbert Bisbee and little daughter, Mrs. Emerson Bartlett, Mrs. Albert Swan and two sons, Lee and Robert and Mrs. Cecil Kimball.

LOVELL

David Allard

David Allard, who died at his home in Malden, May 8, was well known in Lovell when a boy, being the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Allard of West Lovell. He was born there 62 years ago in the Allard home, overlooking beautiful Kezar Pond. When a young man of 18, he went to Massachusetts, where he worked in different places for many years, and where he married and finally settled in Malden. For nine years before his death, he had been a conductor upon the elevated railroad. His passing, although a great shock to his relatives and friends, was for him peaceful and painless. He had been about his usual duties on the previous day but complained of not feeling well. In the morning, it was found that while his family had thought him sleeping sweetly, he had quietly and alone passed over the dark river.

Funeral services were held at his home, May 10, conducted by the Rev. W. Q. Roselle, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, of which Mr. Allard was an attendant.

He was buried at Forest Lake with military honors, having been a veteran of the Spanish War, belonging to Company A of the Fifth Massachusetts. A firing squad from Col. Lakeman Camp fired three salutes and taps was sounded on a bugle by Wm. F. Holland of the "Veterans of Foreign Wars."

Mr. Allard leaves a widow and three step children to mourn their loss, besides two sisters, Mrs. Addie Brickett of Fryeburg, and Mrs. Bertram Busteed of Somerville, Mass., and two brothers, Orlando of Lovell and Otis of Otisfield.

He was a kind friend, a devoted husband, and a worthy citizen.

LOVELL

David Allard

David Allard, who died at his home in Malden, May 8, was well known in Lovell where a boy, being the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Allard of West Lovell. He was born there 62 years ago in the Allard home overlooking beautiful Kezar Pond. When a young man of 18, he went to Massachusetts, where he worked in different places for many years, and where he married and finally settled in Malden. For nine years before his death, he had been a conductor upon the elevated railroad. His passing, although a great shock to his relatives and friends, was for him peaceful and painless. He had been about his usual duties on the previous day after complained of not feeling well. In the morning, it was found that while his family had thought him sleeping sweetly, he had quietly and alone passed over the dark river.

Funeral services were held at his home, May 10, conducted by the Rev. W. Q. Reed, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, of which Mr. Allard was an attendant.

He was buried at Forest Lake with military honors, having been a veteran of the Spanish War, belonging to Company A of the Fifth Massachusetts. A firing squad from Col. Lakeman Camp fired three salutes and taps was sounded for a burial by Wm. F. Holland of the "Veterans of Foreign Wars."

Mr. Allard leaves a widow and three children to mourn their loss, besides two sisters, Mrs. Addie Brickett of Fryeburg and Mrs. Bertram Busteed of Somerville, Mass., and two brothers, Orlando of Lovell and Otis of Otisfield.

He was a kind friend, a devoted husband and a worthy citizen.

The children had a nice time with some of the grown-ups, and had games on the beach. Many thanks are extended to the teacher by the parents and children, for their good time.

BETHEL

Mr. and Mrs. Will Richardson of Gorham, N. H., were guests of their sisters, Mrs. Harry Brown and Mrs. Winfield Howe and families for a week past. They reported their brother-in-law Clye Bean, as being now confined to his bed having had a serious relapse since coming back to Maine from Winterset, Iowa. Mr. Bean's health is failing. Much regret is felt by his relatives and friends here for his continued ill health as not much encouragement is given by the attending physician.

The people who live on Bridge street, near Stowell's Mill are very much annoyed by the screeching "musie"(?) from a steam pipe. It is reasonable to expect such a nuisance to be abolished.

Floyd Thurston with his wagon filled with youngsters drawn by his two-year old Hereford steer, as depicted in a recent issue of the Boston Advertiser, is a familiar sight on the streets of the village. The steer wears a harness with bit in his mouth like any well bred horse. The outfit may be a feature at the county fair this fall.

Word has come from Mrs. Amelia Grover, formerly a resident here, now of Londonderry, N. H., that she is slowly recovering from a serious illness of two months, is now able to take short rides, not long enough to be fatigueing.

Mrs. Grace Hurlburt was a guest of Mrs. Gertrude Milliken over graduation. Mrs. Hurlburt was a graduate of Gould's a few years ago.

All members of the Patrons of Husbandry and friends of the Fraternity, should follow with interest the work of the rally meetings which will be held in all parts of Maine, as National and State officers will be present, some, at least, at every meeting, with other speakers of worthwhile interest.

Mrs. Don Smith took their little year old daughter to church for the first time since her christening when a tiny baby; she was very quiet until the minister, (whom she had met several times and talked to in her home) began his sermon. She imagined a conversation was being directed to her, so she, like all others of the softer sex talked back and was obliged to make a rater hasty exit and return to her home where she could respond with freedom; oh, well, like all feminines she has to learn that at all times a verbal response is not good policy for "Actions can speak louder than words."

A letter from a native of Bethel, Maine, was received, a distant relative, and a former student at Gould's academy. Although in not very good health, her 78 years have rested lightly. She ardently hopes to get to Bethel this summer; her home is in Holden, Mass. She goes with her children to New Castle, Maine, to the homestead of her late husband, Fred W. Perkins, who settled in Worcester, Mass., after their moving from there. On to Bethel, in her desire to renew her memories of her childhood days and meet the few that are living still. Mrs. Perkins was the daughter of "Uncle Free" Bean and sister of Alpheus Bean, well known in the business world. This is just another proof that the longing for the old home town never dies.

E. F. Peterkin has sold two of his high grade Jersey cows. He is now milking twenty-five cows which will soon be increased to thirty.

Many short vacation fishing trips are being indulged in by the men folks not as minutely reported as many catches are.

Mrs. Vert Bean and Evelyn Peare called on Mrs. Ernest Billings and family, recently.

School has closed and Miss Brown has returned to her home in Poland.
